

Please, please, please do something about the half-time show at yesterday's Superbowl...this is completely out-of-control, ridiculous, and infuriatingand this if not the only show...I have never written a letter before. Please stop this madness in our country...I was so embarrassed before the world
I am 53 year old single mother with four children (all completely outraged ath this foolishness) and also a professor.

Sincerely,

Patsy Kay Turner,M.F.A.
